BACK IN SEDALIA.

J. F. Roundtree, who lived in earlier days near Sedalia, but now of San Antonio, Texas, was in the city yesterday. When he used to visit Sedalia he says a man by the name of Henry Pollard ran a hotel on the corner where the Citizens National bank now stands. He says Sedalia no more looks like a village, but presents a metropolitan appearance.

HOW TO GET TO THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Articles of association of the World's Fair Excursion Company were filed for record with the recorder or deeds yesterday afternoon. The name of John B. Breathitt, Judge W. E. Hall, Edward L. Gould, R. D. Man Callaway and Wilson A. Givold appear among the subscribers to the capital stock. Colonel Breathitt is president and Redman Callaway is treasurer of the organization. The Metropolitan National Bank of this city of this city which Mr. Callaway is cashier, has been selected as the depository and custodian of funds. The company is organized for the purpose of providing for the transportation and entertainment of visitors to the world's fair during 1893. The plan proposed is very commendable, the patron paying to the custodian of funds small weekly or monthly payments and thus being relieved by the company of all anxiety, annoyance and useless vexation and waste of time about his accommodations and being protected against the crowding and extortion incident to such occasions. The high standing of the gentlemen comprising the organization insures the careful management of all funds as well as that every promise that is made will be faithfully fulfilled.—Kansas City Times.

A REAL ESTATE DEAL.

Yesterday, through the real estate agency of Stafford & Donnohue, Mr. G. W. Beatty bought a house and lot on the corner of Tenth and Montebau streets, the price paid being $1,000.

HALF MAN AND HALF HORSE

A "Nigger" Slaps a Boys and Pays Ten to the City—Tramp Cigarmakers.

A model police court was held yesterday morning. Everything was done up in a systematic manner and the fines imposed according to the charge. As usual, circus day leaves a good many toughs and tramps but it was not the case this time, it generally carries off small boys, but Jim Gossage was on deck with a smile which covered his face.

There was only one disturbance during the day, and it was of little consequence. John Harris was arrested for disturbing the peace of R. S. Martin, a small boy.

All the witnesses were examined in behalf of young Martin, and Harris, the defendant, was put on the stand. Harris is a typical "nigger," possessing a mouth about six inches wide, and feet without size. When he took the witness box, he elevated his feet on a level with his head, and Attorney Cashman remarked that "the sun had done gone down." He was allowed to make his statement.

He said that he had been employed by the managers of the "Freak show" which has been exhibiting on Ohio street for the past few days, as "bouncer." He further stated that Ross had been standing in the door, as he thought, trying to steal in, and the "half man and half horse," which is one of the features of the museum, had told him to put Ross out. He, as an obedient employe, told Ross to get away. Ross would not go. The half horse kicked and the half man told him to put him out again. He did so and struck Ross on the head. He said he was only obeying orders and the horse part told the man part to tell the boy that the man part did not like to be looked at and the horse part didn't think the man part did either, and in obeying orders the man part told the horse part that the horse part was being looked at and the horse part in connection with the man part—Here Harris became considerably mixed up and said when the court laughed:—

"You kn' ask the ha'f hos and the ha'f man if dat am not so."

The judge said that he did not want any animal in his court.

He was fined $10 and took his seat with a heavy sigh.

Lon Fraze was arrested at the union depot for indecent exposure of person and being drunk, the judge fined him $30 for his fun.

John White, George Thompson, Thos. McCabe, and Francis Balenger were up for trespassing on railway property. McCabe said he was a member of the Y. M. C. A., and Balenger said he was en route to Sweet Springs for his health. They were all fined $5 and costs, with a stay of execution.

Harry Zimmerman and Pete McGaley, two tramp cigarmakers were arrested for vagrancy. When asked what their plea was they answered in bold fearless words:

"The union supports us when we are out of work."

They were fined $5 each and a stay to leave town.

Court adjourned.

ROBBED.

Thieves Enter a Residence and Carry Away About $30 Worth of Goods.

Between 3 and 4 o'clock Friday afternoon some sneak thieves entered the residence of H. H. Dix, at the corner of 20th and Ingram streets, and carried off goods to the amount of $30.

The family were all absent from home in the afternoon, excepting Mr. Dix's daughter, who left the house for about a half hour. Upon returning she found everything disarranged in the house. A search was made, when it was found that $6.35 in money, a diamond stud and other articles which amount to about $30 were missing.

No suspicious characters were seen in the vicinity during the day and it is supposed that they concealed themselves in the weeds back of the house. It was thought to have been some of the circus followers.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Caddo Mills, Texas, June 5, 1891.—From my own personal knowledge, I can recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for cramps in the stomach, also for diarrhoea and flux. It is the best medicine I have ever used and the best selling, as it always gives satisfaction. A. K. SHERRILL. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Aug. T. Fleischmann, druggist.

DIED IN NEBRASKA.

Died at the residence four miles east of Bayard, Neb., on Monday evening at 7 o'clock, Joseph G. Powell aged 34 years.

Mr. Powell had been ill for some seven weeks with typhoid fever and was a great sufferer throughout his sickness, but was patient and resigned. He received the most devoted attention from a loving wife, mother, physician and neighbors and everything done possible for human hands to do to make his last hours on earth comfortable. Mr. Powell was born in Trimball county, Kentucky and moved to this vicinity some three years since. He was married about 10 years ago and leaves a wife and mother to mourn him who have the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral was from the M. E. church, in this village Rev. G. B. Mullis, officiating.—Bayard, Neb., News.

The subject of the above notice was a former well known resident of this vicinity and removed to Nebraska about three years ago. He has a large number of relatives still living here.

TURLEY "FIT"

The Officers, But Was Finally Locked up After a Hard Tussle.

Last night about 9 o'clock Jim Turley, of fighting fame, who had filled up on "Sheep dip" during the evening, promenaded Main street, looking for trouble. He ran up against a man and after a few words struck him. Officer Ramsey and Dept. Constable Barnett came to the stranger's rescue and arrested Turley. Turley bit and fought like a demon, but was finally overpowered. He was taken to the county jail and while there struck at Deputy Barnett, who "handed" him one which laid him out. He was locked up and will converse with Joe Hewitt on the political issues of the day.

Constable Ramsey broke the little finger of his right hand in the "fracas," which pained him considerably. The wounded hand was dressed by Dr. Dresel.

AN INDIAN SCARE.

A Lone Sioux Chieftain Creates Wild Excitement Among the Dusky Denizens of Lincolnville.

Late yesterday afternoon, as the sun was slowly setting in all his golden splendor, a lone Indian chieftain might have been seen standing solemnly under the shade of a large tree in the yard of a colored woman named Mrs. Myers over on Clay street. His head dress of feathers waved gracefully in the gentle summer breeze and his agile figure was clad in a gorgeous suit of bright beads and buckskin. There were streaks of paint about his face and he posed as a veritable son of the forest.

Presently he was espied by some children as they were roaming about the place and the alarm was quickly given. Crowds of men, women and kids gathered about the scene and great excitement prevailed in the outskirts of Lincolnville. The Indian could do nothing but make signs, which could not be understood. Fearing the ominous gathering of the blacks, Lo moved off westward at a lively gate and doubtless spent last night in the woods out on Muddy.

The lone Indian is supposed to have belonged to Forepaugh's show and probably got left here when the circus departed Friday night.

Many of the dusky denizens of Lincolnville were badly frightened at the presence of a wild Indian running loose in their neighborhood, and securely locked their doors.

DEN RAIDED.

Officers McGhee, Hughes and Special Thomas, at 2:30 this morning raided the den over the negro pool room on Main street.

There were about fifteen women and men, all colored, caught in the house. They in connection with numerous drunks and disturbers of the peace will make their debut before Haledad to-morrow morning.

FAIR FACTS.

The Railroads Will Give Unusually Liberal Rates—The Pleasing Outlook.

General Passenger Agent Townsend of the Missouri Pacific has notified Secretary Burr of the Missouri State Fair association that he has ordered a rate of one fare for the round trip from all points of that system in the state. The dates of sale will be Aug. 17 to 22 inclusive and will be limited to return to inclusive of August 24. The M., K. & T. road has made similar reductions from all points on that system within the state and these concessions, which are better than ever before obtained, will have a tendency to bring a large number of people here. The advertising agents who have been travelling through the central part of this state in the interests of the fair say that the announcement of the fair is received with almost enthusiasm. The people have heard of the wonderful growth of Sedalia during the past seven years and this coupled with the attractions offered by the fair association makes them anxious to attend.

Secretary Burr is very busy these days recording entries, which are coming in by every mail. They are not confined to any one department but are well distributed throughout all the departments. The increase in the premium list is having the desired effect and entries are being made from all the adjacent states.

The work of putting up the necessary apparatus for the illumination of the streets of the city during fair week is progressing very well and everything will be in place long before it is needed. The display will be larger and better than ever.
